

IMAGINiT Technologies Recognized with Autodesk Platinum Club Awards

BALTIMORE, MD — MAY 3, 2022 — For the ninth consecutive year, IMAGINiT Technologies has earned Autodesk Platinum Club Awards in recognition of their accomplishments. Based on IMAGINiT's outstanding performance in Autodesk's most recent fiscal year, their Canadian operations received an award for Top Growth in Product Design and Manufacturing. While IMAGINiT's US operations received the Top Growth in Premium Subscription award.

"We appreciate Autodesk's acknowledgement of our ability to develop and nurture long-term customer relationships built on trust and adding value to their operations," says Bill Zavadil, president and chief operating officer, Rand Worldwide, the parent company of IMAGINiT. "These awards validate our continued investments in supporting our customers who maintain Autodesk or Autodesk Premium subscriptions, as well as our significant and ongoing investments in the training and education of our specialized teams, as recently undertaken with our Manufacturing team in Canada. Throughout North America, our customer-centric approach allows our experts to help identify underlying challenges that our customers face and together, develop and execute a plan to overcome them resulting in more effective processes and business outcomes."

"We applaud IMAGINiT as they continually extend their leadership position by finding new ways to support customers at every stage," says Roland Zelles, senior vice president and chief revenue officer, Autodesk. "As a company that is dedicated to customer success, we're excited to work with partners like IMAGINiT who also support this initiative and inject innovative ideas into the process."
